The historic village has a conservation area which is home to the eleventh-Century St Wulfran's Church, Ovingdean Grange, a Grade II-listed manor house, and Ovingdean Hall, a late 18th Century country house which was formerly a school. Ovingdean Village Store and Post office is located on nearby Longhill Road; Rottingdean High Street offers a wider variety of shops and places to eat. Rottingdean boasts a pretty duck pond and a variety of quaint cottages as well as the impressive manicured gardens to the house where Rudyard Kipling once lived. There is also the iconic Rottingdean Windmill at the top of Beacon Hill, which leads on to the Beacon Hill Nature Reserve. Both Rottingdean and Ovingdean have beaches and Ovingdean Café on the undercliff walk, just a mile walk from Brighton Marina, is open every day for snacks and drinks. Ovingdean is a thriving community and the village hall is used for private functions, regular fitness classes and various clubs as well as societies including the Women's Institute, and the local Parents and Toddlers Group. Other activities include ballroom dancing, short mat bowls, a gardening club, and Ovingdean Arts Club. Local schools in the area include Ovingdean Nursery, St Margaret's CofE Primary School, Saltdean Primary School, Longhill High School and Brighton College.
